CONSTANTINOPLE, October 17.

WE have received advice, that on the 9th of this month, Heſſan Bey, put himſelf at the head of 3400 men, and ſailed from the Dardanelles, to relieve the Caſtle of Lemnos; the troops had ſafely landed in that iſland; that he marched up to take the beſiegers, both Greek and Ruſſians, and cut them all to pieces, took the cannon employed in the ſiege, and delivered the Caſtle.——The garriſon had given hoſtages that very day, and was to have evacuated the place the next day. This affair has coſt the Ruſſians 2500 Greeks, which they had at Lemnos, and about 400 of their own troops.

Conſtantinople, October 16. 'Tis reported, that there has been an engagement in Crimea, or near Aſoph, to the advantage of the Ruſſians.

Frontiers of Turky, October 21. Letters from Conſtantinople adviſe, that the Turks have retaken the iſland of Lemnos from the Ruſſians, whoſe loſs on the occaſion, was very conſiderable. The ſame letters add, that the Turks have formed a project to make the utmoſt efforts to drive the Ruſſians from the poſts they have taken from them on the Danube, and that in conſequence two large bodies of troops are advancing on each ſide of the Ruſſian army. If this proves true, the operations of both armies will not be leſs intereſting this winter than they were in the ſummer.

HAGUE, October 29. They write from Fontainbleau, as follows: Thurſday, after the arrival of a courier here from Spain, the Miniſters declare, there will be no war; which ſpreads a general joy both at Court and in the town.

TRIESTE, Nov. 3. We learn from the Levant, that General Orlow was beſieging Tenedos, in the iſland of that name, which town was ready to capitulate. Admiral Elphinſton is ſtill in the neighbourhood of the Dardanelles. There are near Scio two Ruſſian Ships, the men of which intend to dive for the 500,000 rubles that were loſt when the Admiral's ſhips was burnt.

Conſtantinople, Oct. 17. The laſt letters from Iſacktcha adviſe, that the Grand Viſir was making diſpoſitions to attack the Ruſſians in flank, on the ſide of Walachia, where there are two Baſhaws with 20,000 men, and a body of 20,000 Tartars; they add, that a detachment of 10,000 men, commanded by Dagueſtan Ali Baſhaw, was to form an attack on the right.

Venice, Oct. 19. According to ſome advices ſent by Moldangi Pachi, to the Grand Signior, the Caſtles of the Dardanelles are in the beſt ſtate of defence poſſible, and the north winds, which had ſet in, had driven the Ruſſian ſquadron from before that Streight.

Cadiz, Oct. 23. We are buſy in furniſhing all the batteries with cannon and mortars, building new batteries, and making all neceſſary preparations to put this place in the beſt ſtate of defence poſſible. We daily expect a number of troops deſtined to reinforce the garriſon.

This day a battalion of foot, of the regiment of Lombardy, was ſhipped off for Buenos Ayres.

Oct. 26. A French frigate freighted by our Court, ſet ſail this morning for the Canaries, to which iſlands ſhe carries 2600 muſkets.

Oct. 30. M. de Reggio, Lieut. General of the Spaniſh marine, is to ſet out very ſoon to take the command of a ſquadron at Ferrol.

Warſaw, Nov. 3. The hopes that peace between Ruſſia and the Porte would ſoon take place, diminiſh daily, as there are among the conditions on which it was to be concluded, ſome inſurmountable difficulties.

From the Confines of Poland, Nov. 6. A very rich Jew of Cracovia, having ſuddenly diſappeared his abſence cauſed the greateſt uneaſineſs in his family, who after the minuteſt enquiries, found that he had entered into a convent, where the Monks had cauſed him to come with a large ſum of money, under pretence of making a bargain with him; in conſequence of this diſcovery, ſearches were made in the Monaſtery, where the body was found in the ſewer. This affair makes a great noiſe in the city, and the proſecution is actually carrying on againſt them with the greateſt ardour and activity.

Vienna, Nov. 10. Letters from Buchareſt in Wallachia adviſe, that on the 15th of laſt month at night, Soliman Baſhaw, who commands in Brahilow, made ſo vigorous a ſally on the Ruſſians, and beat the beſiegers ſo completely, that they were obliged to raiſe the ſiege and retire.

Paris, Nov. 12. The great deſire which the people of this kingdom in general have for peace, makes them eager to catch at every glimmering that gives them the leaſt hopes of it: Beſides, we have great confidence in the capacity and good intentions of the Duke de Choiſeul. However, our politicians are of opinion, that the ſucceſs of the Ruſſians will make it more difficult to bring the Engliſh to terms; and it is ſaid, they have already refuſed ſeveral millions, which have been offered to them to ſtop the preparations they are making for war, which, on the contrary, they carry on with great vigour. In ſhort, we are to look for the deciſion of the parliament of Great-Britain in this affair, and therefore impatiently wait their determination.

Paris, Nov. 16. The credit of the royal actions begins to revive, which proves that the public puts a juſt confidence in the abilities of the Abbe de Terray, to reſtore order in the finances of the ſtate. 'Tis generally aſſured, that in two months time he will have all his funds ſettled for the year 1771, and upwards of 150 millions in the King's coffers to face every event.

Marſeilles, Nov. 16. The Sieur Lemaire, French Conſul in the Morea, is lately arrived here with his family, from Coron, where he reſided, and which he was obliged to abandon, when the Ruſſian ſquadron, under Count Orlow, undertook the ſiege. He was accompanied in his retreat by the French merchants ſettled there, who by this means, have loſt the chief of their effects, part being ſeized by the Mainotes, who joined the Ruſſians, and the other by the loſs of a veſſel, in which they had embarked the moſt valuable of their effects.—The French merchants eſtabliſhed at Modon, Navario, Patras, and other cities in the Morea, have met with the ſame fate.

Bruſſels, Nov. 19. According to advices from Paris, the number of troops ordered to their ſea coaſts, amounts to 45 000 men.

Hague, Nov. 20. Some letters from Madrid adviſe, that all buſineſs is tranſacted in the Catholick King's cabinet, with the utmoſt ſecreſy, ſo that nothing tranſpires in public concerning the manner in which the differences between Spain and England will be terminated; but that at all events they are inliſting all who are upwards of 15 or 16 years of age; and that the forces which Spain has actually on foot amount to 151,000 men, viz. 92,000 foot, 12,000 horſe, and 47,000 ſailors or marines.

Nov. 22. Extract of a letter of Prince Galitzin, Miniſter from the Court of Peterſburgh, to the States General, dated Oct. 30.

"The Chan of the Tartars being deſirous to go into Crimea with part of his troops, and the Turks which he kept with him after the defeat of the Grand Viſir, was attacked by land by Gen. Berg, and on the Dnieper by the Coſſacks Saporaſkys. He had upwards of 2000 men killed, many taken priſoners, and loſt 300 waggons with baggage, and 12000 horſes, &c.

LONDON,

Nov. 7. Yeſterday morning the two Kennedys were brought into the Court of King's-Bench in Weſtminſter hall, when Mr. Serjeant Glyn moved, That the merits of the appeal might be entered into, Mr. Wallace, council for the Kennedys, then moved That the appellant ſhould appear to make good her charge againſt the defendants. Proclamation was accordingly made in the Court for that purpoſe, when the appellant not appearing, ſhe was nonſuited.

The two Kennedys are to be brought up again ſome day this term, in order to be diſcharged from the appeal; the ſentence remains as it did, the one to be tranſported for life, and the other to wait his Majeſty's pleaſure.

We are aſſured that the widow Bigby has received 330l. and is gone to Holland, one of their ſiſters went in the Coach with the Kennedys to priſon.

The two Siſters of the Kennedys were in the Court of King's-Bench on Tueſday, when their brothers were brought to the bar.

It is ſaid Mrs. Bigby would have proſecuted the above murderers upon the appeal, provided a certain ſet of gentlemen would have given 330l. She abſolutely refuſed, two months ago, to take 350l from the friends of the Kennedys; declaring ſhe would never ſell her huſband's blood; but finding ſhe was not ſupported as ſhe expected, ſhe at laſt acquieſced in receiving the above mentioned ſum.

The maſſacre of the Greeks in the dominion of the Grand Signior is hoped to be at an end, as General Count d'Orloff has given the Turks to underſtand, that the moment he heard that they had ſhed the blood of one more Chriſtian, he ſhould give orders for ſtrangling 500 Turkiſh priſoners.

Nov. 27. We are informed, from the beſt authority, that the Spaniſh ambaſſador has required a month to give in his preliminaries.

A letter of the firſt authority from Madrid ſays, "our court we are well aſſured does not intend to declare war againſt England, but leave that nation to declare againſt us; by which means we ſhall be entitled to the aſſiſtance of France."

Before the preſs warrants were iſſued, there were 16,000 ſeamen in pay at the different ports; but notwithſtanding that and the bounty money we are well aſſured there is not yet half men enough to man the ſhips that are already put into commiſſion.

It is ſaid, that a Common-Hall will ſoon be called, to conſider a late anſwer, and to conſult about what further ſteps can be taken towards procuring a redreſs of the oppreſſive grievances of the people; and it is reported, that the whole body of the livery of London, have thoughts of going up in perſon with another humble petition to his Majeſty.

Nov. 24. We hear that on Monday next a motion is intended to be made, to bring in a bill to define and ſtate what ſhall hereafter be conſidered as a libel.

The Captain of the Zeuland, a Dutch ſhip, arrived a few days ago, at Havre de Grace, from Ferrol, reported, that on the 24th of laſt month, he ſaw a Spaniſh fleet of eight ſail of the line, four frigates, and eleven tranſports, which were ſteering their courſe weſtward.

A correſpondent aſſerts, that the French and Spaniards have eighty ſhips of the line manned, and ready for ſailing orders at a moments notice; and if the Duke of Choiſeul's propoſal had not been over ruled in the laſt French council at Verſailles, our ports of Plymouth and Portſmouth would have had a joint naval viſit from the courts of Spain and France, one day this week; and remarks what a delightful ſtate of ſecurity have our wiſe miniſters brought us into, when we depend upon a negative voice in the French councils, not to have our two capital ports deſtroyed, and all, our ſhipping in them!

It was ſaid to a miniſter, the other day, "My Lord, your enemies will certainly never ceaſe till they have forced you headlong out of power;" and it was replied, "And that will certainly never be, my Lord Duke, till they have forced me headlong to the Tower."—"I ſuppoſe your Lordſhip means by impeachment." "your Grace may be aſſured I do not mean by remonſtrance." The converſation is a fact; it was before half a ſcore witneſſes.

We are well aſſured that the laſt anſwer from the Court of Spain was, "that they totally diſavowed the late proceedings of the governor of Buenos Ayres, and that the Britiſh court might act juſt as they pleaſe."

There is not the leaſt doubt but the French are making every preparation to ſtrike a formidable blow in the Eaſt Indies, with a large fleet and 6000 troops. And thanks to the ſupineneſs of our Miniſtry, we have at preſent but three frigates in that part of the world.

On Thurſday night and Friday morning laſt, the low ground from Hamſtead-heath to Weſtbourn green, was over-flowed; but the paſtures lying upon the afcent each way, the cattle eſcaped. On Saturday morning the whole flood came down to Bayſwater, where, notwithſtanding his Majeſty's indulgence in giving a new opening through the wall on the left hand of the road, the brook (which is naturally about four yards wide) ſwelled upwards of three hundred feet in breadth, with a depth proportionable. Near two acres of the great botanic garden was overwhelmed, and the green-houſe filled over the pots with water. Four of the houſes of that hamlet were overflowed; and the gardener going to remove the furniture of the lower apartment, was in a few minutes ſurrounded with water to the depth of ſeveral feet, and obliged to leave every thing to its deſtruction; and haſtening to his own houſe, found the water raiſed ſo high that he was obliged to ſave his wife and children by taking them out at a window, and to carry them to the black lion, a quarter of a mile off; whither Mrs. Sharply of Bayſwater, was alſo forced to retire, with her family, leaving her houſe to the mercy of the waves. Dr. Hill and his family were in London; but a large houſe which he had built there laſt year, of eighty feet in front ſuſtained great damage; and the loſs of the garden may be gueſſed, when it is obſerved the plants ſtood in general at fourteen inches aſunder, and many of them were worth from five to ten ſhillings a root: in the green houſe were alſo twelve hundred plants, in ſhort the garden was reckoned the beſt ſtored with curious plants, of any in Europe, excepting only that of her royal highneſs the princeſs Dowager of Wales, at Kew.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Nov. 15. A few days ago one of his Majeſty's cutters, ſtationed at Kinſale, chaſed a homeward bound veſſel from Newfoundland, in order to impreſs the paſſengers, when a deſperate fight began, in which the cutter was obliged to ſteer off with one of her men killed, and ſome wounded. The conquerers then landed at Dungarvan.

Notwithſtanding the great encouragement to tillage given by the Dublin ſociety, we are informed it has been computed that within theſe twelve months paſt 400 000 quarters of corn have been imported into this kingdom from Great-Britain, America, &c. for which we have paid, including freight, half a million of pounds ſterling.

Kilkenny, Nov. 7. Our letters from the county of Tipperary informs us, that the white boys have again made their appearance in that county. On Wedneſday night laſt, a party of miſcreants armed, ſuppoſed to amount to 300 or upwards, all mounted, went to the houſe of James Fannin, in the ſuburbs of Carrick on Suir, whom they took out of his bed, and being an old infirm man, they threw him acroſs on horſe naked as he was, and carried him to the Fair-Green of that town, whipping him all the way; they then with ſavage cruelty threw him into the river ſeveral times, and hauled him out immediately. After which they perambulated the whole town, firing ſeveral ſhots as they went; and brought the unhappy man four miles from the town, repeating their barbarity all the way, of which cruel treatment he died the next day. We hear that the only reaſon alledged for this inhuman murder is, that the deceaſed had agreed to give 3d. per tail for the tythe-potatoes of the Deer-Park of Carrick more than the Welders.

SALEM, January 29.

Yeſterday Captain Griſte, arrived at Marblehead from Falmouth, which he left the 25th December, by whom we have received a Engliſh prints, containing the following advices.

MADRID. October 22.

THE motions made by our troops appear to announce war as inevitable. They have actually formed three encampments; one in Andaluſia, another in Galicia, and a third in the province of Murcia.

LONDON, Nov. 20,

Notwithſtanding what has been ſaid to the contrary, we are aſſured Lord M——d's opinion is for war; and that this is the occaſion of the preſent differenee between his Lordſhip and the Miniſtry.

On Saturday the Earl of Egmont was pronounced by his phyſicians to be out of danger.

This day there will be a Court of Aldermen, when it is ſaid, a proteſt will be moved for againſt the Remonſtrance now in agitation. This petition will be founded on the impropriety of praying a diſſolution of Parliament, at a time when there is ſo much real occaſion for their ſitting.

Nov. 20. Late laſt night we received the two following paragraphs, from an anonymous correſpondent, viz. On Sunday an expreſs arrived at the Admiralty, with an account, that the French fleet from Breſt had ſailed, conſiſting of 15 ſhips of the line and 4 frigates, viz. 1 frigate of 20, 2 of 32, and 1 of 36 guns; 4 ſhips of 64; 1 of 70, 9 of 74; and one of 80 guns.

It is certain Fact, that Capt. Gower of the Pearl, and Capt. Jarvis of the Alarm, both ſlipped their cables, and came out of the Bay of Cadiz, having an order ſo to do, telling them at the ſame time the deſigns of the Spaniards, againſt Gibraltar, were no longer a ſecret, and that 25,000 French troops were arrived that day at Ferrol, with ſome of the beſt engineers of France.

The packet of the 16th ult. from Barcelona, containing the letters of Mr. Miller, the Engliſh Conſul at that place, and thoſe of the merchants who trade to Spaniſh ports, were never received here. The letters were ſtopped in Spain, and opened for intelligence. The packet of the 30th ult. ſhared the ſame fate.

December 4. A marriage is talked of between Prince Henry of Pruſſia, and the Empreſs of all the Ruſſians.

It is ſaid a univerſal Change will ſhortly take place in his Majeſty's ſeveral governments in America and the Weſt-Indies. Tho' our fleets ſhould be from the addition, nearly one third more in number and ſtrength than before the commencement of the laſt war, we have neither 12 ſhips fit to ſend to ſea, nor men enough to man ſo ſmall a number completely.

An authentic copy of an affidavit made on Tueſday the 27th of Nov 1770, by Capt. John Pits, relative to the Engliſh Ships being detained in Spain.

JOHN PITS, maſter of the ſchooner Catherine, left Riva Dios the 15th November, 1770, and ſaith, that he waited on the governor the 13th inſt. to demand his clearance, in order to ſail that day; the governor replied, he would give no clearance, until he ſhould have an anſwer from Madrid, where he would write for that purpoſe by that day's poſt. This deponent being then detained until the 15th November, on which he applied to the Conſul for advice, he told him, that a war now ſeemed inevitable, and would adviſe this deponent to take the firſt opportunity at night to eſcape, for that he the ſaid Conſul had received intelligence from Henry Banks, Eſq; the Britiſh Conſul at Corunna, that the Spaniards had detained the Engliſh ſhips there, and unſhipped their rudders, to prevent their Eſcape. That this deponent following the ſaid Conſul's advice, at Riva Dios, eſcaped in the night of the ſaid 15th of Nov. unſeen by the Spaniards, and arrived at Arm, within the port of Plymouth, the 19th November.

Sworn before
JOSEPH HOSKINS
Attorney at Law, in Plymouth.

Dec. 6. We hear that on Monday, 15 more men of war and ſloops were put in commiſſion.

It is ſaid that ſome new regulations, no leſs ſalutary for the colonies, than ſatisfactory to the mother country, are now agitating; the hint of which was ſuggeſted by a nobleman, who has on ſeveral occaſions diſtinguiſhed himſelf in a great aſſembly.

We hear that the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, will ſoon be required to attend the Houſe of Peers, on very important buſineſs.

Dec. 8. It is ſaid that a certain Preſident is far from being eaſy at his ſituation; the preſent oppoſition to him and his doctrines fills him with apprehenſions of a very alarming nature and quickens all his native timidity.

Yeſterday the augmentation of the ſeamen was taken into conſideration, when 7000 men extra were voted, beſides the annual number of 17,000.

It is now more than ever credited, that a certain C——f J——e will ſoon retire from all public buſineſs.

And it is ſaid the above expected retirement is in conſequence of a warm attack he has lately received from the E——l of C——m, and L——d C——n.

Dec. 10 Yeſterday Lord Viſcount Weymouth, Secretary of State for the Southern department, reſigned the ſeals.

We hear that Lord Weymouth has reſigned in good humour, and will continue to ſupport adminiſtration, unplaced and unpenſioned.

Yeſterday Lieut. Gen. Cornwallis ſet out to embark for his Government at Gibraltar

The laſt time L—d C——n went to the upper room of the Robinhood Society, a perſon put a paper into his hands, with a requeſt, that he would ſpeak upon the contents immediately in the room. His L—p repeated the circumſtance, with obſerving, the writing was very familiar to him, having received in the courſe of laſt war many of his intelligences in the ſame hand. He further obſerved, that it intimated, that the very French engineer, who had planned the taking of St. Philip's, had given a ſecond plan for the taking of Gibraltar which was agreed to by the Courts of France and Spain; and according to the immediate preparations made in conſequence of this ſcheme, he did not doubt that the garriſon of that fortreſs was already beſieged.——

By a gentleman who arrived on Friday night from France, we have undoubted intelligence, that the French have 26 men of war manned, and ready to ſail in the harbour of Breſt; and alſo that the French ſoldiery were marching in great numbers towards the ſea coaſt.

A courier is expected from Madrid the latter end of this week.

It is ſaid that the houſe of Lords will adjourn for the holidays on Thurſday; and the Commons on the day following.

It is a certain piece of information, that the joint efforts of the Courts of France and Spain have not been able to procure as yet, a ſufficient number of ſailors to man half the number of ſhips that we have now ready for ſervice

Whitehall, Dec. 8. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. —— Earl of Dunmore, now Governor of New-York, to be his Majeſty's Lieutenant and Governor General of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia.

William Tryon, Eſq; now Governor of North-Carolina, to be Governor of New-York, in the room of the Earl of Dunmore: And

CHARLESTOWN, (South-Carolina) Dec. 25.

At one o'clock this day, the town was alarmed with the cry of fire, which proved to be in a wooden building belonging to Mr. John Champneys, on his wharf, near to the New Exchange, occupied by Mr. Jonathan Clarke and ſon, Mr. John Marley, (where he kept his compting-room) and a ſhoemaker and his family, which in a ſhort time conſumed the ſame, with all the gold and ſilver work in Mr. Clarke's ſhop, and the ſhop, goods, liquors, and books of accounts of his ſons, as alſo all Mr. Marley's books of accounts: The flames communicating from this building to the range of ſtores on the oppoſite ſide, alſo belonging to Mr. Champneys, ſoon conſumed Meſſrs. George and John Blaike's cooper's ſhop, the ſhop of Mr. Joſeph Turpin, jun. and a ſhoemaker's ſhop. The ſtores of Meſſrs Hugh Swinton, William Sykes, John Cogdell and George Kincaid, as alſo his cooper's ſhop, being adjoining to the laſt mentioned buildings, likewiſe took fire, and were entirely conſumed, together with great quantities of all kinds of goods, liquors, &c. ſo that of thoſe two ranges of buildings, none were ſaved but Mr. Tebout's blackſmith ſhop, Mr. Robinſon's blockmaker ſhop, and Mr. Loocock's ſtore. The long range of ſtores on the oppoſite ſide, belonging to Colonel Beale were alſo conſumed, and Meſſrs. Daniel and Iſaac Bourdeaux, as well as Capt. Blewer, ſuffered greatly thereby, not having time to remove their effects. The corner ſtore in the poſſeſſion of Mr. Fenwicke Bull, on Colonel Beale's wharf, fronting Elliot-ſtreet and the Bay, alſo took fire, which, with the reſt of that range, were entirely conſumed, together with a large quantity of goods, liquors, &c. and at Mr. Nathaniel Ruſſell's ſtore the flames were happily ſubdued, through the vigilance of the inhabitants, and the engines being well ſupplied with water. The wind being due north, was a moſt favourable circumſtance to the town, as it drove the flames clear of the buildings on the Bay. The damage ſuſtained by this fire, it is imagined, will amount to three thouſand pounds ſterling. A ſchooner belonging to Mr. Kirk, being a ground in Col. Beale's dock, had her rigging burnt, and received ſome other damage. The Lower-Market houſe was cut down, it being apprehended that the flames would have reached ſo far.

The ſame day the brig Prince of Wales, Captain Moore, arrived here in 12 days from Philadelphia, in whom came John Hughes, Eſq; collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for this port; and Lady.

SALEM, Jan. 29.

When the laſt veſſel arrived at Marblehead, left Bilboa, which was on the 30th of November, the Spaniards were under fearful apprehenſions of a rupture taking place ſoon, and ſhe was diſpatched as faſt as poſſible. We hear Captain Collins arrived at Bilboa 3d Dec. who no doubt will be diſpatched in the ſame manner, and may ſoon be expected, as well as Capt. Pearce from Cadiz.

A packet ſailed for New-York 4 days before Capt. Griſte came out. Another was arrived from New-York in 18 days.

A declaration of war was ſpeedily expected when Capt. Griſte ſailed.

Deal, Dec. 16. Came down, Boſcawin, Robinſon, for Boſton. Arrived and ſailed for the River, the Lucretia, Folger, from Boſton.

BOSTON, January 28.

Friday laſt Capt. Hill arrived at Marblehead from Liſbon, which he left the 21ſt of Dec. and a Gentleman there in a Letter of the 19th, writes, "That Mr. Potter, (the Meſſenger from the Engliſh Court) left Madrid the 7th of Nov. and that they impatiently waited an Anſwer from Britain to their Overtures, which was expected by the 4th of December."—There was no Account of a War when the above Veſſel left Liſbon.

By a Schooner juſt arrived at Marblehead from Liſbon, we hear, that the Difference is made up between the Courts of Great Britain and Spain, the latter agreeing to pay the former ſix Millions of Dollars for their Expence in fitting out a Fleet, &c. to revenge the Inſult given by the Spaniards in taking Poſſeſſion of Falkland Iſlands. This News, however, gains but little Credit.

On Friday Evening, the 18th Inſtant, an Aſſembly was firſt opened at Concert-Hall for the Winter Seaſon. It is ſaid a large Number of the principal Gentlemen of the Town who have been of very different Sentiments in the late party Diſputes are Subſcribers, and that the Aſſembly was propoſed, in order to reſtore Peace, Harmony and the Bleſſings of ſocial Life.

A Correſpondent has ſent us the following.—— "An odd and ſad Accident lately happened to a Gentleman, who has a conſiderable Poſt in the ——. This Gentleman had the Misfortune to fall deeply in love with another Man's Wife—ſhe was averſe to his importunities for a long while—at length, tired of them—ſhe informs the Huſband—he adviſes her to make an Appointment with the Gentleman—this ſhe does.—The Wife is put out of the Way—the Huſband equipped in the Wife's Cap, &c. at the Time appointed goes to Bed—the Gentleman gets in at a Window, and ſoftly makes his Way into the Room where his ſuppoſed Miſtreſs lay—he undreſſes for Bed,—where, behold, juſt as he was entering, Madam with the Cap on, gave a Whiſtle, when three or four ſturdy Rogues burſted out from a neighbouring Cloſet, ſeized my Gentleman, who met with an irreparable Loſs, and is now under the Care of ſkilful Surgeons."

Die Veneris, 10 ho. A. M. the 25th January, 1771.

Robert R. Livingston, Esq; appearing in the Assembly Chamber, and producing an Indenture of his being elected, and returned a Representative for the Manor of Livingston; and the same being read, Mr. Speaker asked, whether two Members should wait upon one of the Commissioners, appointed to qualify the Representatives to serve in this present General Assembly, and see Mr. Livingston qualified.

A Motion was then made by Mr. Clinton, in the Words following, viz.

Mr Speaker,

I move, that before the Question be put, whether two Members wait on one of the Commissioners, to see Mr. Justice Livingston take the necessary Oaths or not, this House resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, for our mature and most deliberate Consideration, whether the Exclusion of any Officer under the Crown, or other Persons (not disqualified by Law) from Seats in this House, by a bare Resolve of the House, will not be a high Invasion of the fundamental Rights of our Constituents in the Freedom of Elections, an Abridgment of the Authority of the other Branches of the Legislature, subversive of our happy Constitution, and tending to the Erection of a Republic in this Colony? And Debates arising upon the said Motion, Mr. De Lancey moved, That the previous Question be first put, whether the Question upon Mr. Clinton's Motion should be now put? And the said previous Question being accordingly put, it was carried, that the Question upon Mr. Clinton's Motion should not be now put, in Manner following, viz.

For Mr. Clinton's Motion not being now put.

For Mr. Clinton's Motion being now put.

Mr. De Witt, Mr. Van Cortlandt, Mr. Ten Broeck, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Mynderse, Col. Woodhull, Capt Seaman.

A Motion was then made by Capt. De Lancey, in the Words following, viz.

Mr. Speaker,

I move, That a Resolution be entered upon the Journals of the House, that this Matter can be as well considered and debated in the usual Manner, before the House, as in a Committee; and Debates arising upon the said Motion, and the Question being put thereon, it was carried in the Affirmative, in Manner following, viz.

For the Affirmative.

Mr. De Witt, Mr. Van Cortlandt, Mr. Ten Broeck, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Mynderse, Col. Woodhull, Captain Seamen.

Resolved therefore,

That this Matter respecting Mr. Justice Livingston's being admitted to a Seat in this House, can be as well considered and debated in the usual Manner, before the House, as in a Committee.

The House then entered into debates thereon, and after some time spent in maturely considering the matter, Mr. Speaker put the question, whether two members should wait upon one of the Commissioners appointed to qualify the Representatives to serve in this present General Assembly, and see Mr. Livingston qualified? Which passed in the negative, in manner following, viz.

For the Negative.

A Motion was then made by Capt. De Lancey, in the Words following, viz.

Mr. Speaker,

I move, that it be resolved, that the Exclusion of the Judges of the Supreme Court, from their Seats, by a Resolve of the House, will not be an Invasion of the fundamental Rights of the People in the Freedom of Elections, nor an Abridgment of the Authority of the other Branches of the Legislature; is not subversive of our happy Constitution, nor tending to the Erection of a Republic in this Colony; but an Exertion of that Right which the Constitution has lodged in the Representatives of the People.——And Debates arising upon the said Motion, and the Question being put thereon, it was carried in the Affirmative, in Manner following, viz.

A few Days ago we hear that the Number of Poor mentioned in the Workhouse in this City, amounted to 339 Persons, besides a considerable Number of poor Persons and Families supported or assisted at their own several Places of Residence in this City.

[☞ In our Paper of last Week, under the New-York Head, was inserted an Account of the Death of Lieutenant Robert Waddell, of the 16th Regiment, now quartered in this Place, mentioning, on that Occasion, the Sensibility of his disconsolate Widow, &c. This Account, which proves to be a mere Fiction, without any Foundation in Truth, (Mr. Waddell being at the Time, as he still continues, in perfect Health, and unmarried) was sent to the Printer, by an anonymous Writer, with a Request that it might be published in the next Paper, to oblige several Customers. Vouchers to Articles of this Sort, are seldom given or expected, they are generally inserted for no other Reason but to shew proper Respect to deceased Persons, and to oblige their surviving Friends. The Motives of the Writer of the above Paragraph are entirely unknow to the Printer, who is concerned that his Complaisance and benevolent Intention should have been made Instruments of propagating a Falshood, that might possibly be greatly injurious to Mr Waddell, and distressing to his distant Friends; to prevent which, as much as possible, is the Design of this Publication, which it is hoped will spread as extensively as the false Account it is intended to refute.]

POET'S CORNER.

An ODE. Written in Sickneſs.

Whither ſo early do you fly?
Scarce half your tranſient ſweetneſs known,
Why are you vaniſh'd 'ere full blown?

2 The beaut'ous progeny of ſpring,
That tinge the zephyr's fragrant wing;
Each tender bloom, each ſhort liv'd flow'r,
Still flouriſh till their deſtin'd hour;
Your winter, too, too ſoon will come,
And chill in death your vernal bloom.

3 On my wan cheek the colour dies,
Suffus'd and languid roll mine eyes;
Cold horrors thrill each ſick'ning vein;
Deep broken ſighs my boſom ſtrain;
The ſalient pulſe of health gives o'er,
And life and pleaſure are no more.

LONDON, November 27.

A letter from Portsmouth, dated Nov. 25, says, "Last night put back in a very leaky and shattered condition, his Majesty's ships Arrogant, Capt. Moor, Achilles, Capt. Wheelock, and Rippon, Capt. Brereton, having met with a very heavy gale of wind, off the Start, which had very near drove them on shore; they persued their passage as far as the islands of Scilly, when, the gale still continuing, and against them, they were obliged to put back to this port. The ships are so disabled, that they must be docked. The Achilles has lost her fore and main yards and mizen top mast, and the other two are equally damaged. They parted with the Ajax, Capt. Allen, soon after they left St. Helens, and have not heard of her since, but 'tis hoped she has made good weather, and got safe to Ireland. Other ships will be sent in their stead, to carry the troops from Ireland for the re-enforcement of Gibraltar, that little time may be lost."

It was yesterday reported that Lord B——n, was shot in a duel.

Another account says, a duel was (Sunday) intended to be fought between Lord B—g—n and General H—d, but was prevented by a message sent to the parties expressly from the K—g; the grounds of the quarrel arose from a speech in the House on Wednesday last, when the G——l charged the noble Lord with leaving some very illiberal reflections on the military, by declaring there was no man living capable of executing the office of Commander in Chief.

Much having been said with respect to an assertion thrown out by a distinguished gentleman, in a respectable assembly, as if we had no one among our list of officers fit for commanding our armies at this time, when they seem to be wanting; the following is given as nearest the truth, of any that has appeared:

"The Hon. Member, says he, Col. B. laments the loss of our late commander in chief; I join in his lamentation: for I always esteemed and loved that great man, and I have the best reasons to believe that he had the same attachment to me. However, much divided in our political sentiments, we preserved private friendship inviolable: A circumstance, which I think no small honour to myself. But, exclaims the hon. Gentleman, 'Where 'shall we find his like again?' I protest I do not know. If any one can point out a worthy successor, I will do all in my power to have him appointed. For though the business may be tolerably managed without such an officer, yet it will be better and more easily managed with him, at least the S——y at W—r will find his account in the nomination. Judging this step, therefore eligible, I call upon any Gentleman that is in the secret, to point out a proper Commander in Chief. However industriously the last Speaker thrust himself forward, I cannot persuade myself that he is the man. I have not a good enough opinion of his abilities. Accordingly I will not give my advice that he should be appointed successor to Granby."

It is reported, that at the meeting of the Common Council, next Tuesday, a motion will be made to call the Livery together, in order to propose another Remonstrance, and to be accompanied by the whole body of the Livery to St. James's.

L—d N——h moved that leave be given to bring in a bill for the better supply of his Majesty's ships of war, and merchant ships, with marines, similar to an act which passed in 1755, allowing three-fourths foreigners, and one fourth British.

The Corporation of Folkstone give the same bounty to seamen as the City of London.

Letters from the North, yesterday, give most disagreeable accounts of the floods; they mention, that the corpse of the late Duke of Argyll, was driven down by the strength of the current, and the coachman, horses, and several persons attending the corpse were drowned.

Extract of a letter from Norfolk, Nov. 24.

"Last Sunday Norwich was quite deluged, the people were obliged to be carried in boats through the streets, at a penny a head; the water reached to the first floors, and there appeared no difference between the river and the fields, all being one continued piece of water; two boats were lost here the same day, and fourteen men perished. The loss to the farmers, by having all sorts of cattle drowned, is almost incredible."

We are assured, that a noble Duke of independent spirit and fortune, has positively declared, that he will have nothing to do with the present weak administration.

A committee of the clergymen of Maryland, lately held at Annapolis, hath directed an application to the crown, for the nomination of a Bishop in that province, that the students in divinity in the American universities, may not be obliged to the expence of a voyage to England before they can obtain orders; and that the profligacies of the clergy, too numerous in America, may not, as hitherto, pass uncensured.

Yesterday WAR was declared against Spain, by the Heralds in 'Change Alley.

The Mayor and Magistrates of Newcastle have come to a resolution to give the same encouragement to seamen, to enter volunteers on board his Majesty's ships of war, as the city of London.

Letters from Madrid mention, that the Earl of Bute is arrived there, and has been very graciously received by his Catholic Majesty.

CROSBY, Mayor.

A Common-Council holden in the Chamber of the Guild-Hall of the city of London, on Thursday the 16th day of November, 1770.

Resolved and ordered, That the sum of 40s. for every able seamen, and 20s. for every ordinary seaman, over and above the bounty granted by his Majesty, to be given by, and during the pleasure of this Court, and not exceeding one month from this day, to every such seaman that shall enter at the Guildhall to serve on board his Majesty's navy.

Extract of a letter from the Count de Romanzow, Field Marshal of the Russian armies, dated from the camp near the Lake Elupk, Oct. 20.

"The success which the troops under my command have met with since the taking of Kilia Nova is as follows: the detachment, of which I gave the command to Brigadier Baron Igelstrom, has subdued the fortress of Ackerman, after a resistance of ten days only. The garrison, consisting of 2000 men, as well as the inhabitants, who were near 6000, capitulated for leave to past the Danube with their private property, which was granted. Besides the various stores which we found in the arsenal belonging to this place, we took 74 pieces of cannon during the attack. As Baron Igelstrom necessarily extended his operations further in the country, he obliged one of the Tartar Murses, together with all his vassals, to submit to the protection of her Imperial Majesty, and to take the oath of allegiance, which they solemnly swear by the Alceron. And in consequence of our treaty with this Tartar Chief, I have left him in possession of his antient place of abode near Tatarbunar.

"While I have been thus employed near the Black Sea, I have carried on my operations beyond the river Pruth, where the body detached from the main army, under the command of Major General Glebow, still continues the siege of the fortress of Brahilow, which was begun on the 26th of September. The Turkish garrison there makes a vigorous defence, being daily seconded by succours from their army, which is encamped on the other side of the Danube, near Isakezy. They have already made five desperate sallies, but have always been driven back with considerable loss. The first time they left 300 of their men dead upon the spot; and the last time, many more. We have taken from them seven pair of colours, and a button of command. According to the most certain intelligence, the Grand Vizir, with his army, amounting to between 20,000 and 30,000 men, is now near Isakezy."

The point to be argued in the cause between the Right Hon. George Onslow and Mr. Horne, which was to have been discussed yesterday in Westminster-Hall, is put off till next term.

On Saturday arrived at Pool, the Two Brothers, Capt. Smith, belonging to that Port from Newfoundland, with passengers from thence. She was met at sea by the Swan sloop of war, who impressed 50 men out of her, the others having hid themselves; but the men that were impressed gave information of the others; on this the sloop of war immediately sailed after her, and finding she would not stop for them, bore down upon her, and stove the said ship, which obliged him to put into Topsham to repair before she could get to Poole.

We hear that Dr. Warburton, Bishop of Gloucester, will succeed the late Dr. Matthias Dawson, Bishop of Ely.

We also hear, that Dr. Dampier will be preferred to the see of Gloucester, in the room of Dr. Warburton.

The 20,000l. prize, which was drawn on Friday, is said to be the property of Moses Lindo, a Jew Merchant.

One of the sorters at the General Post-Office, a lad about 13 years of age, was committed to the Poultry-compter by the Lord Mayor, on Saturday charged with stealing out of two letters two half guineas.

Mr. Potter, the messenger, we understand, is once more to depart, in the course of this week, for Madrid, with what is called the final requisition, which, if it fails of procuring satisfaction for the injury lately sustained by the Crown of Great Britain, the preparations already made will be immediately employed to obtain the required redress.

WILLIAMSBURGH, January 17.

To the PRINTER.

SIR,

AS I owe to society many obligations, to discharge them with honour is my highest ambition. Providence hath placed me in a situation which confines the exertion of my abilities within a narrow sphere: To their utmost boundary, however, I would wish to extend them. It is with a view to this, that I beg leave, to communicate to the public, through the channel of your paper, the result of a long experience respecting the preservation of grain, for which we are indebted to M. Adanson. The insects to which grains are most liable, will, together with their eggs, be effectually destroyed, if the grains affected can receive the heat of above 90 degrees of Reaumur's thermometer (near 240 of Farenheit's) from which, or even 200 degrees (260 of Farenheit's) they will be so far from suffering, that they will be rather improved, both for the miller and baker.
